

NEWS from The Savannah River Site

Media Contact: Judy Spencer
(803) 725-0624
judy.spencer@srs.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

$13,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE GIVEN AWAY AT CSRA COLLEGE NIGHT

Aiken, S.C., Sept. 7 — High school students will have an opportunity to meet recruiters from more than 140 colleges and universities and win $13,000 in scholarships at CSRA College Night, to be held 5-8:30 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 11, at the Augusta-Richmond County Civic Center. Admission is free, and the event is open to the public.

College Night provides a way for CSRA students and parents to:

- Learn about a variety of colleges and interact with recruiters and representatives from more than 140 colleges and universities;
- Obtain information on educational opportunities, admission requirements and tuition;
- Speak with representatives from various professional societies who will be on hand to provide information in areas such as engineering, management, chemical science and nuclear science; and
- Attend seminars to get information about HOPE and LIFE scholarships and financial aid.

Students will also have an opportunity to win 13 $1,000 scholarships funded by local businesses and technical societies. To qualify, students must be a high school junior or senior; graduate with a GPA equal or above 2.5 on a 4.0 scale (or equivalent). Students must attend College Night to register.

CSRA College Night is sponsored by U.S. Department of Energy-Savannah River Operations Office, Westinghouse Savannah River Company and its partners (Bechtel Savannah River Inc., BNFL Savannah River Corporation and BWXT Savannah River Company) the SRP Federal Credit Union and the Augusta Area Independent Schools. For more information, search the web and enter: http://www.srs.gov/general/sroppty/csra_college/Index.htm.

NOTE TO EDITORS: Members of the news media are encouraged to attend CSRA College Night. The winners of the $13,000 in college scholarships will also be announced at the event.

WSRC-01-28