AREA STUDENTS TO WIN AT SRS SAFETY ART CONTEST BANQUET

AIKEN, S.C., MAY 8 – Forty local students will be honored at the Savannah River Site's (SRS) 15th Annual Safety Art Contest banquet on Friday, May 10, at the North Augusta Community Center, at 6 p.m.

The contest promotes safety among children and is open to students, grades Kindergarten through high school. Artwork is judged on the students' interpretation of safe practices while at home, school or at play. Over 5,000 entries were received for this year's competition.

First place winners receive $70, second place $40, third place $30 and honorable mention $20. The winners' artwork will be displayed at the banquet.
