

NEWS from The Savannah River Site

Media Contact: Mickie Seitter
(803) 725-3381

For Immediate Release

2002 WSRC FAMILY SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

AIKEN, S.C., April 25--Fourteen students have won Westinghouse Savannah River Company Family Scholarships. These winners are sons and daughters of WSRC and Westinghouse Safety Management Solutions employees.

Winners of $12,000 scholarships are:

Tawny-Lee Chritton, Aiken High School, daughter of Jerry Czarnecki, Nuclear Materials Management Division.

Keith Dunbar, T.W. Josey High School, son of Wileva Dunbar, Business Management Services Division, and Toney Dunbar, Environmental Restoration Division.

Staci R. Hutsell, Aiken High School, daughter of Dale Hutsell, High Level Waste Division.

Kenneth N. Kay, Jr., Lakeside High School, son of Kenneth Kay, Safeguards, Security, and Emergency Services.

Winners of $3,000 scholarships are:

Victoria Balcer, Lakeside High School, daughter of Mark Balcer, Business Management Services Division.

Monica P. Bhatt, Lakeside High School, daughter of Pankaj Bhatt, Projects, Engineering and Construction Division.

Sarah L. DeWitt, Aiken High School, daughter of Larry DeWitt, Environment, Safety, Health and Quality Assurance.

Amy C. French, Aiken High School, daughter of Tom French, Savannah River Technology Center.

Allison H. Garrett, South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics, daughter of Alfred J. Garrett, Savannah River Technology Center.

WSRC Family Scholarships Awarded- pg. 2

Andrea Johnson, South Aiken High School, daughter of David S. Johnson, Facility Support Services Division.

Kathleen G. Kennedy, South Aiken High School, daughter of A. Gibert Kennedy, High Level Waste Division, and Pam Kennedy, Chief Financial Officer Division.

Cynthia K. Murphy, Torrington High School, daughter of Edward Murphy, Westinghouse Safety Management Solutions.

Tara Spencer, South Aiken High School, daughter of Charles G. Spencer, Defense Programs.

Staci L. Stowell, South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics, daughter of Michael Stowell, Savannah River Technology Center.

--WSRC-02-22--