WSRC Team Employees Reach 10 Million Safe Hours

- WSRC operations employees recently surpassed 10 million safe hours worked without an employee losing time as a result of a workplace injury or illness.
- “Most companies would be excited to pass one million safe hours of injury free work,” said Bob Pedde, WSRC President. “Ten million hours is phenomenal.”
- This is the second time in two years that WSRC Team employees have surpassed this milestone.
- This special achievement indicates the safety culture at SRS continues to be strong.
