Savannah River Remediation Earns Local MLK Award

Photo Cutline: Jim French, Savannah River Remediation (SRR) President and Project Manager, receives the Shiloh Comprehensive Community Center's Dream Keeper Award during the Shiloh Center's fourth annual Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration, held Jan. 15 in Augusta. The award was presented in the Corporate category by LaVerne Gold, President/CEO of the United Way of the CSRA. The Dream Keeper Award recognizes efforts to keep Dr. King's dream alive in the local community. SRR was recognized for its outstanding support of agencies and programs in the CSRA that have helped individuals and groups achieve their dreams.
