

Figure 7. Domestic Water Systems

SRS collects drinking water samples from 10 locations at SRS and at two water treatment facilities that use water from the Savannah River as a source of drinking water. Data from these samples are compared to samples from the River Mile 141.5 location. Onsite drinking water sampling consists of samples from the large treatment plant in A Area and samples at four wells and five small systems.